

Minority Rights Day In Collaboration with IQAC Raidighi College

Embracing diversity and championing equality, the Minority Welfare Cell of Raidighi College, in collaboration with IQAC, painted the campus with awareness on December 18th, International Minority Rights Day. An insightful seminar resonated with the theme of "Celebrating Diversity and Inclusion." Expert speakers delved into the rights and challenges faced by minority communities, fostering empathy and understanding. The program pulsated with cultural performances, showcasing the vibrant tapestry of traditions that enrich India's social fabric. Interactive sessions encouraged dialogue, breaking down barriers and building bridges of respect. This wasn't just a commemoration; it was a celebration of inclusivity, a resounding pledge to uphold the equal rights of all, and a powerful reminder that unity thrives in the rich mosaic of diversity. The echoes of Minority Rights Day reverberated beyond the college walls, leaving a lasting imprint on hearts and minds, inspiring all to champion the cause of a truly equitable world.

