Raidighi College Shines a Light on Inclusion with PWD Identification Event

Raidighi College, in collaboration with Purba Dwarakapur Moon Star Sangha and Narayan Smriti Sangha, hosted a momentous event to identify Persons with Disabilities (PWDs) in the community. The event, a beacon of inclusivity, drew in a remarkable 48 children accompanied by their families, creating a vibrant and heartwarming atmosphere.

This initiative not only aimed at recognizing PWDs but also fostered a sense of belonging and support within the local environment. The sheer number of participants signifies a growing awareness and acceptance of disability, paving the way for a more inclusive society. The collaborative effort between the college and community organizations highlights the power of collective action in making a positive impact.

While the exact details of the event remain unclear, one can imagine the enthusiasm and determination of the children, the supportive presence of their families, and the dedication of the organizers. This event undoubtedly served as a catalyst for positive change, leaving a lasting impression on the local community and inspiring further action towards inclusivity.
