

Observance of Birthday of Sir A. J. C. Bose

Lushing life into learning, the Botany Department at Raidighi College buzzed with a student-led seminar and vibrant wall magazine launch. Budding botanists delved into fascinating topics, sharing their passion for the green world. From exploring biodiversity's secrets to dissecting the dance of photosynthesis, the seminar blossomed with knowledge and enthusiasm. Meanwhile, the wall magazine, adorned with colorful art and insightful articles, bloomed onto the bulletin board, a testament to the students' creative flair and love for nature. This botanical bonanza nurtured inquisitiveness, reminding everyone that learning flourishes best when cultivated by young minds and vibrant expression.
