

Report on Observance of International Mother Language Day 2024

Raidighi College observed International Mother Language Day on February 21, 2024, with great enthusiasm and reverence. The event aimed to celebrate linguistic diversity, promote multilingualism, and pay tribute to the martyrs who sacrificed their lives in the 1952 Bengali Language Movement.

The program began with a floral tribute to the martyrs at the college premises, symbolizing respect and remembrance. Faculty members and students delivered speeches emphasizing the significance of preserving and promoting mother languages as an integral part of cultural identity and heritage.

The event also featured a cultural program that included recitation of poems, songs, and short plays performed in various regional languages, showcasing the rich linguistic diversity of the participants. Students shared personal reflections on their connection to their mother tongue and its role in shaping their identity.

Special emphasis was placed on the importance of mother languages in education and communication, fostering a sense of pride among attendees for their linguistic heritage.

The observance of International Mother Language Day at Raidighi College provided a platform for students and staff to come together and celebrate the beauty of linguistic and cultural diversity, while reinforcing the need for collective efforts to preserve and promote languages.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks, acknowledging the contributions of the organizers, participants, and attendees. The event successfully highlighted the importance of language in fostering unity and preserving cultural heritage.

