

Report on Orientation Programme on Caste Sensitisation

The Equal Opportunity Centre, in association with the SC/ST Welfare Cell of Raidighi College, organized an enlightening Orientation Programme on Caste Sensitisation. The session aimed to raise awareness about caste-related issues and promote inclusivity and equality within society and the academic community.

The program featured Prof. Sudhakar Sardar, Assistant Professor of English at Acharya Jagadish Chandra Bose College, Kolkata, as the keynote speaker. Prof. Sardar delivered an engaging lecture on the social and legal dimensions of caste issues in India. He provided a comprehensive overview of the historical and contemporary challenges associated with caste discrimination, as well as the legal framework designed to address these inequities.

The session was highly interactive, with Prof. Sardar encouraging participants to share their thoughts and experiences. This dialogue allowed students and faculty members to delve deeper into the topic and understand the importance of empathy and active efforts in fostering an inclusive society.

The event successfully created a platform for meaningful discussions, equipping participants with the knowledge and sensitivity to address caste-related concerns in their personal and professional lives.

The program concluded with a vote of thanks extended to Prof. Sardar for his valuable insights and to the organizers for their efforts in addressing such a critical issue. This initiative underscored Raidighi College's commitment to promoting equity, inclusion, and social justice.

